

A4S is offering a small number of subsidized places for the A4S Academy 2023-24 programme. These places will be offered at a reduced rate.

Subsidized places are available for participants who do not have the means to cover the cost of the A4S Academy in full, for example participants from organizations based in emerging/developing markets or the public sector.

There are a limited number of places available, so A4S will prioritize based on need.

To be considered for a subsidized place you must also meet the standard A4S Academy eligibility criteria listed below:

- Participants must be senior finance professionals. For example:
 - Divisional CFO or functional head for FTSE100, S&P 500 or equivalent
 - Reporting directly to the CFO for smaller organizations
- Participants must have the capacity and aspiration to lead and/or influence change within the finance function.
- Participants must be endorsed by their Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Typical participants include: Divisional CFOs, Controllers, Treasurers, Head of Investor Relations, Head of Internal Audit, Financial, Planning & Analysis Leaders, Head of Financial Reporting.

Cost

Subsidized Academy fee: £1,500 (full price £4,500)

Apply

If you meet the criteria listed above and are interested in joining the A4S Academy programme 2023-24, please fill out the application form on our website.

Deadline for applications is 31st March 2023.

If you have any questions, please email academy@a4s.org.